

Park Shelter Reservation Guidelines

- Activities sponsored by the Town of Matthews have priority in scheduling for use of all parks.
- Admission cannot be charged for entrance into a Town of Matthews operated park.
- Park facilities may be reserved for a maximum of 4 hours; reservations must end by 8:00 PM.
- Profit-making or fund-raising activities are not allowed within Town parks.
- Parks are tobacco free. Alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs, or weapons are prohibited; except to the extent that concealed weapons are allowed by law. Concealed weapons are not allowed in the vicinity of ball fields, playgrounds, trails or greenways.
- The park must be left clean and in orderly condition.
- Reservation agreements must be signed by persons 21 years of age or older. The person signing the reservation agreements must ensure that appropriate adult supervision will be on site if the reservation involves activities for youth.
- Park Shelter Reservation Confirmation Process:
 1. Inquire about park availability with the Matthews Parks, Recreation, & Cultural Resource Department
 100 E. McDowell Street, Matthews, NC 28105
 Phone: 704-708-1288
 Email: srawls@matthewsnc.gov
 2. After availability is confirmed, submit a completed Park Use Permit via email or at the Matthews Community Center, 100 E. McDowell Street. Once the Permit is approved, you will be contacted to arrange payment. Accepted forms of payment: Cash, credit, or check payable to "Town of Matthews."
 Reservation requests must be submitted at least 72 hours prior to the requested date and time.
 3. You will receive a confirmed copy of the Park Use Permit for your reservation at time of payment or via email. You must have your confirmed Park Use Permit with you during your park reservation.

A confirmed Park Use Permit is complete with authorized MPRCR department signature and permit approval date*
